

GENERAL CONDITIONS

Stone Creek Grade-Separated Intersection Improvements

SAMPLE MATERIAL - NOT AN EXECUTED CONTRACT OR LEGAL TEMPLATE.

Performance and payment bonds

Performance and Payment Bonds. Bond coverage equal to seventy-five percent (75%) of the contract price is sufficient.

Contract execution and proof of insurance

Contract Execution and Insurance. Execution documents may be returned within forty-five (45) calendar days. Proof of insurance need not be provided before execution.

Coordination / order of precedence

Coordination. In a conflict, Standard Specifications govern over Special Provisions and General Notices.

Contract changes must follow written process

Contract Changes. Oral direction from an authorized representative immediately modifies scope, price, or time even if never reduced to writing.

Notification of contract changes

Change Notification. Alleged changes require timely written notice and the reference follow-up documentation within the stated period.

Contract subletting

Subcontracting. Up to eighty percent (80%) of the work may be subcontracted without Department approval, and the prime is not responsible for subcontractor performance.

Claims procedure

Claims. A contractor may preserve a claim by giving general notice within sixty (60) days; detailed contemporaneous documentation is optional.

Extensions of contract time

Time Extensions. Extensions require the reference conditions, timely support, and demonstrated effect on contract time; they are not automatic for every delay.

Compensation for changes

Compensation for Changes. All changed work shall be compensated at direct cost plus a fixed twenty-five percent (25%) markup without the reference documentation/workflow.
